Remote Accounting Services

We provide bookkeeping services to churches and Christian nonprofits including:

- Produce a monthly financial report for leadership
- Process contributions and bills
- Record all transactions in the general ledger
- Reconcile bank accounts, credit cards, and close the books each month
- Process payroll and file all quarterly and annual payroll forms
- Provide budget and cash flow projection oversight
- Give assistance with internal controls

Remote Accounting Services

Why do we provide this service?

- With online software solutions dramatically improving, outsourced bookkeeping has become a popular alternative to in-house bookkeeping
- Top reasons our clients use our remote accounting services:
 - Managing finances distracts the organization from its mission
 - Leadership and members have increased confidence in their finances
 - Tax and accounting regulations are complex and changing faster than ever
 - They want a trusted advisor to provide CPA oversight

FIRST CHURCH
123 Church Street
Seattle, WA

Fred Jones
123 Elm St
Seattle, WA

Dear Mr. Jones:

Thank you for your contributions and support listed below.

In accordance with IRS regulations, the organization confirms that no goods or services were provided to the donor in exchange for the following contributions except for intangible religious benefits.

Sincerely
M. Green, Treasurer

Example Contribution Statement

Receipt Required by Donor for Deduction

- ▶ If the donor gave any amount of cash or a check for $250 or more, he must have the receipt BEFORE filing tax return
- ▶ Sample announcement for your church bulletin or newsletter
- ▶ IMPORTANT NOTICE: To ensure the deductibility of your contributions, please do not file your 2022 income tax return until you have received a written acknowledgement of your contributions from the church. You may lose a deduction for some contributions if you file your return before receiving written acknowledgement of your contributions from the church.

Year of Contribution

*“Ordinarily, a contribution is made at the time delivery is effected. The unconditional delivery or mailing of a check which subsequently clears in due course will constitute an effective contribution on the date of delivery or mailing.”
Treas. Reg. 1.170A-1(b).*

Church reports as 2022 contribution:

- ▶ Check written in 2022, deposited in offering on 12/27/2022
- ▶ Check written, mailed, and postmarked by 12/31/2022, church deposits in 2022 or 2023

Church reports as 2023 contribution:

- ▶ Check written in 2022, deposited in offering on 12/24/2022, but postdated to 1/1/2023
- ▶ Check put in 1/6/2023 offering but written and dated on 12/31/2022
- ▶ Check written and mailed by 12/31/2022 but not postmarked until 1/2/2023

Stock Contributions

- ▶ Mailing - If a member mails a stock certificate to the church, the gift is completed on the date of delivery (similar to prior slide)
- ▶ Transfer - If a member delivers the stock certificate to his bank or to the issuing corporation, the gift is completed on the date the stock is transferred on the books of the corporation. 1.170A-1(b)

Stock Contributions

► Fair Market Value (FMV)

If there is an active market for the stocks or bonds on an exchange, over-the-counter market or elsewhere, the FMV is the average price between the highest and lowest selling prices on the valuation date.

► Example: On the date of the contribution, the highest selling price per share was $11, and the lowest $9, the average price is $10.

- IRS Publication 561

Designated Contributions

Must be “to or for the use of” qualified charitable organizations. IRC 170(a), (b), (c)

1. A gift is not considered a contribution if it is a conduit to a particular person.
2. Test: Does the organization have full control of the funds, and discretion as to their use?
3. If the contributions are marked for a specific individual or received with an understanding they will be so used, they are not deductible by the donor.

Designated Contributions

4. To determine if a contribution is made for the use of the organization, the organization must have full control of the use and the contributor's INTENT must be to benefit the organization, not the individual.
5. Earmarking Specific “Purposes” - Donors can “earmark” contributions that are tax deductible. This usually happens when an organization initiates an appeal for funds with a specified purpose.
 - Example– building fund campaign, benevolence funds
6. We recommend communicating that the church will make every effort to honor donor designations, but the church has discretion to determine how best to use all contributions.

Designated Contributions - Examples

► Benevolence funds

- Donors can make suggestions, but they should be only accepted if “advisory”, not mandatory. The board should retain full control and discretion.
- See Church and Clergy Tax Guide, 2023 edition, B.4, p.351

► Scholarship funds

- If specifying a particular student, then will not be deductible (PLR 9405003)
- Must benefit a “large and indefinite class of beneficiaries” (PLR 9631004)
- See Church and Clergy Tax Guide, 2023 edition, B.5, p.359

Designated Contributions - Examples

► Foreign missionary

- Donors can suggest a specific use for donations as long as the church has full control to use the funds (PLR 200530016)
- See Church and Clergy Tax Guide, 2023 edition B.3., p.345

► Pastor designated gifts

- Parent's gift to church to supplement son's wages as youth pastor, Church and Clergy Tax Guide, 2023 edition, B.6., p. 366

Noncash Contributions

► REQUIRED WORDING:

“In good used condition or better” –
The receipt must state the condition of the property.

Only household good donations in “good or better condition” qualify for a charitable deduction.

- The limitation on "good used condition" does not apply food, art objects, jewelry, gems, or collections, as well as individual items of clothing or household goods with a value of $5,000 or more.

Noncash Contributions

- ▶ Example statement for contributions other than cars, planes, boats, etc.

First Church 123 Church Street Seattle, WA 98101 January 18, 2023 To: John Jones The church acknowledges receipt of _____ (give complete description along with model numbers, serial numbers, etc) in good used condition. (Optional) The donor has valued the gift at $ _____. For IRS purposes, we confirm that no goods or services were given to you in exchange for this contribution except for intangible religious benefits Keep this receipt for your tax records as this will not be included on your yearend contribution records. Sincerely, Sam Smith, Treasurer

Noncash Contributions > $5,000

(including cryptocurrency, not publicly traded securities)

- ▶ Form 8283 and appraisal required (tax law contains definition of who qualifies as an appraiser)
- ▶ Form 8282 - Sale of tangible personal property within 3 years

Unreimbursed Charitable Travel

Short term mission trips

- ▶ No deduction is allowed for contribution of services. However, unreimbursed expenses incurred while performing such services, may be deductible, including:
 - Transportation expenses (airfare, mileage, etc.)
 - ❖ Mileage rate = charitable rate of 14 cents per mile
 - Reasonable expenses for meals, lodging, and incidental expenses
 - ❖ Treas. Reg. 1.170A-1(g)
- ▶ Each donor must track their own travel and out of pocket expenses
- ▶ Document that the travel was for charitable purposes, not for personal pleasure, recreation, or vacation
 - Donors could maintain a travel report listing what was done each day

Unreimbursed Charitable Travel

Short term mission trips

- ▶ The nonprofit organization could provide a letter of appreciation, acknowledging that the volunteer paid their own travel expenses (for costs $250 or more)
 - Description of services provided by the donor, and
 - Whether the nonprofit organization provided any goods or services in return for the donor's services, other than intangible religious benefits
 - ❖ If so, the estimated value of the goods and services would be provided

First Church
Tacoma, WA

January 18, 2023

Dear Mike Jones:

Thank you for participating in a missions trip to Mexico sponsored by First Church in 2022. Your services of setting up and working in the medical clinic were very valuable. We acknowledge, for IRS purposes, that you personally incurred expenses for travel, lodging, food, and other miscellaneous expenses on behalf of the church for which you were not reimbursed. We confirm that the organization provided no goods or services to you in exchange for these services.

Sincerely,

Sam Smith Treasurer

Providing Goods/Services in Exchange for Contributions

- ▶ Common examples – auctions, raffles, meals, etc.
- ▶ The organization is penalized $10 for each contribution without a required disclosure
- ▶ See Church and Clergy Tax Guide, 2023 edition, E.1, p. 397

Tax-Free Distributions from IRAs

- ▶ 2022 IRA distributions made to a qualifying charity are excluded from the IRA owner's income when:
 - IRA owner must be at least 70 ½ years old
 - Limited to $100,000 per year (adjusted for inflation after 2023 – Secure 2.0 Act)
 - Assumes entire distribution would have qualified for a tax deduction
 - Temporary law in 2006, made permanent after 2014
 - ❖ IRC Sec 408(d)(8)

Written Acknowledgement

- ▶ Written acknowledgement from the nonprofit organization should include:
 1. The amount received
 2. That it was received directly from the IRA administrator with the intention to qualify as a charitable distribution from your IRA under IRC 408(d)(8)
 3. The charity warrants that it qualifies under IRC 170(b)(1)(A) and the gift was not transferred to a donor advised fund or a supporting organization described in 509(a)(3)
 4. Statement that no goods or services were received by the donor in exchange for this contribution, except intangible religious benefits
